6. COMMERCIAL RECOVERY SYSTEMS, INC. [CRS] is a corporation engaged in the business of collecting consumer debts in the NORTHERN District of Texas. The principal purpose of business is the collection of consumer debts using the mails and telephone, and it regularly attempts to collect consumer debts for others. COMMERCIAL RECOVERY SYSTEMS, INC. ### Factual Allegations

8. In September 2005 the Defendants started contacting the Plaintiff at work in an attempt to collect an amount of $1,453.00 and was told that the Plaintiff could not accept any private calls; however, the Defendants left personal, verbally threatening messages demanding that the Plaintiff return his calls.

9. The Defendant SHANE RYKER and JOHN BRONSON, or a person claiming to be SHANE RYKER and JOHN BRONSON, persistently called the Plaintiff as a representative of CRS as well as called the Plaintiff's husband at his place of employment demanding payment of $1,453.00 without identifying that the call was from a debt collector and the nature of the obligation.

10. After several calls, the Plaintiff returned the Defendant's calls on September 21st, 2005, and requested the name of his agency and an itemized bill for the purported debt, but was refused.

11. The Defendants were in effect threatening that if this amount was not paid that litigation would commence and that she would be served at work, despite her requests not to be called or contacted at work, that she would be arrested and her wages garnished.

12. On September 21st, 2005, after several other calls to the Plaintiff's husband, the Defendants spoke with the Husband and asked why was he married to a woman like the Plaintiff who did not pay her bills, which reality is far from the truth.

13. On September 21st, 2005, the Plaintiff called and demanded that the Defendants cease all collection activity, especially calls to her at work.

14. Under the guise of settlement an offering, on September 27th and again

September 28th, 2005, the Defendants called the Plaintiff at her place of employment and called the employer of the Plaintiff seeking salary information. Earlier, the CRS representative stated in a telephone message that he was going to call payroll so he would know from where he would get the money owed.

14. No litigation has been instituted as threatened.

15. Plaintiff received no further communication from the Defendant that included any written debt validation notice as required by 15 U.S.C. §1692g(a).

16. The foregoing act and omission was undertaken on behalf of the Defendants by their agent, or employee, acting at all times relevant hereto within the scope of that relationship.

17. The foregoing act and omission of the Defendants was undertaken willfully, intentionally, knowingly, and/or in gross disregard of the rights of the Plaintiff.

18. The foregoing act and omission of the Defendant was undertaken indiscriminately, as part of their regular and routine collection efforts, and without regard to or consideration of the identity or rights of the Plaintiff.

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows.

I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved )

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases )

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.
